

SoulSALT™ Derrek Draper

Coach Bio

Positive, includer, loyal and focused; Derrek combines these strengths to hold clients in a place of acceptance and understanding. By so doing, he can hold individuals to their "soul salt" and facilitate higher levels of awareness and performance.

As an innovator and thought leader, Derrek has played a key role in assisting SoulSalt open a whole new world of eCoaching. eCoaching is SoulSalt's most affording coaching product, which works towards Derrek's deep desire to improve communities on a global scale. His entrepreneurial background started in his early youth through a lawn care business. He went on to develop a commercial production and marketing company in college. His compassion for others manifested itself in a two year humanitarian effort in Brazil. In his words, "coaching is the channel through which we find our most significant and satisfying self."

"I used to think happiness was the result of some series of events or actions, but I was mistaken: Happiness is a choice; it's a state of mind."

- Derrek Draper